

DIRECTOR BIOGRAPHIES

Larry Winger (District No. 2 – Original 2nd Commissioner District – Yuma County)

Larry is a longtime Yuma County Resident and his wife Tammy is a Washington County native. Larry operates a livestock operation and a diversified family operation with his parents, Bud & Faye Ellen, and his brother Steve and his family. Larry feels it is important to keep up with the state of the ag industry and the changes and challenges facing ag and Eastern Colo in general. He enjoys reading and coaching youth/high school sports.

Larry served on the M&M/CHS board for many years and various other boards and community organizations. He has enjoyed serving on the board and is excited to continue to represent the membership on the Y-W Board.

Chester Gebauer (District No. 5 – 2nd Commissioner District – Washington County)

Chester Gebauer is seeking his sixth term as director for Y-W, first having been elected to the Y-W board in 2006. Chester was born and raised in Washington County and has been a member of the Y-W Electric Association for over 40 years. He is a graduate of Akron High School. Chester attended college and graduated from Colorado State University in 1968 and served two years in the U.S. Army.

After returning home from the service in 1970, Chester and his wife, Linda, have farmed and ranched near Otis. They have three adult sons, one daughter-in-law, and two grandsons.

Brooke Price (District No. 9 – Town of Otis)

My name is Brooke Price. I am married to my best friend Ryan and we have 2 amazing kids, Gavin and Hattie. Otis has always been my home, I love my community. I am serving my second term on our town council. I also have a salon in town that I have owned for 19 years. I love to golf, watch an occasional Hallmark movie, spend time with family and friends and travel. I pride myself on being honest, hard working, dedicated and positive.

Marty Major (District No. 9 – Town of Otis)

Marty has lived in Colorado since 1981 and is an Associate Broker with Goodman Realty in Akron since August of 2020. He has been selling rural real estate for seven years, previously with Rocking X Land Company, and he and his wife Terri have lived in Otis since 2015.

He has one granddaughter Teagen who lives in Brighton with his oldest son Seth, a fire lieutenant with West Metro Fire, and his wife, Jennifer, while his youngest son Sean, a filmmaker, lives with his wife Tania in Chicago.

Before entering real estate, Marty worked for numerous well-known high-tech companies, including Hewlett Packard, Oracle, and Campus Management Corp., managing sales organizations, channels, and engineering teams across the US, South America, and Europe.

As a seasoned business executive, Marty has over 30 years of experience in technology, sales negotiations, corporate marketing, and rural real estate.

After a 12 year career as a professional rodeo cowboy in the PRCA, Marty graduated with an electronics degree from Arizona College of Technology, married, and moved his family from Arizona to Colorado in 1981.
